Calling All Tree Lovers!

Would you like to join a small group interested in identifying and labeling trees on our property? Pat Kelleher has purchased tags from Amazon. There is an app for iPhone users call Leafsnap that you can download for free. It enables us to identify trees from their leaves. The labels are environmentally safe. Call Patricia Kelleher at 857-703-8908 if you would like to participate. We will commence the project in September when we have cooler days.
