Historian Paolo DiGregorio presents Reconstruction: Politics, Race, and Society in the Aftermath of the Civil War on Channel 222 at 7:00pm this evening. The Civil War was the costliest war in American History. In the aftermath of that struggle, national leaders had to figure out how to put the nation back together. The period of Reconstruction was full of political turmoil, racial tension, and social upheaval. Yet the failures of Reconstruction would shape the following 150 years of American history.

Join Nancy Wilbur and Barbara Cocci for Imagining Hope in 2021 at 3:00pm on Zoom this afternoon. Such a difficult time we've had. It can be hard to summon hope and enter 2021 with joy. Yet we are looking ahead to vaccinations, spring, having coffee and tea together. And even now, in winter and separated, we can meet our days with hope. We will gather to see and hear poetry, image, music, humor--the language of hope and the imagination. Residents Nancy Wilbur and Barbara Cocci will lead us. Bring an envelope, paper and something to write with. Muriel Pelligrino will send the zoom link if you are on our zoom database.

Need some time for yourself? Join Carol for Restorative Yoga on Thursdays via Zoom at 4:00pm. Class is designed to help you slow down and spend more time in restful poses. If you are on our Zoom email list, the link to join the class has been to you.

Join Jen on Senior TV (Channel 222) for Stretching for Stress Relief at 4:00pm and enjoy a quick class to relieve the body and the mind. First half of class is seated, second half is supported-standing, with a chair. All stretches are gentle and intended to release those tight areas of the body where we carry stress. A wonderful way to end your day.

Residents' Association Corner

Your Residents' Association Board began the new year with a meeting on Zoom. Although we could not meet in person, it was nice to be able to see everyone's face. Deborah Felton graciously offered us the use of the Fuller Village Zoom account to conduct our meeting as well as giving us an update.

Our Association activities are severely limited due to COVID-19, but our officers and representatives are volunteers in the "Reaching Out Program" as well as 30+ other residents in order to keep in touch with our neighbors during these difficult and isolating times. In addition, Vice President Pat Kelleher has welcomed eight new residents during the last two months on behalf of our organization.

Secretary Jeanne Bronk shared the minutes of the last meeting held on a cold November day in the tent. Treasurer Irene Brannelly reported that our treasury has a healthy balance as of the end of 2020.

Our Fall Craft Fair was greatly missed by all last November. However, we hope to have the Fair this year, even if it might have to be limited to Fuller Village residents only. As always, please feel free to contact any of the officers or your representatives with ideas or concerns you may have.

Cheryl Manoli, Villa Representative
