Residents' Association Corner

Sincere appreciation to Barbara Cocci and Mary Owens for hosting the lovely morning coffee they arranged last week to honor Anne Piacentini's many years of service to the Brush Hill Library. We are grateful to Anne for building and managing a remarkable collection of books. Barbara and Mary will be the new managers of the Library.

The Residents' Association Activities Committee has had some reorganization in the past few weeks. Nancy Kearns, who has led the committee since its inception, will "step back" for now and hand over the Chairperson role to Marty Allen. We are immensely grateful to Nancy for her skillful leadership over the past 16 years and she will remain on the committee as a valuable resource. The committee has expanded and includes Marty and Nancy, along with Sara Moyer, Pam Francis, Ruth Chandler, Blossom Glassman, Anne Segal, Ellie Forman, Jane Bent, Bill Galvin, and Gail Zaslow. We are fortunate to have so many residents willing to help with leadership in social activities. Please suggest ideas you have to these committee members. As health mandates continue and winter weather approaches, we will be seeing safe and interesting indoor activities.

The newly formatted Residents Directory which is funded by this Association has been distributed. We thank Joey DiGiano and Daniel McGarr for working on the "new look" for this directory. We also acknowledge the work Mike Ryan has done over many years to produce the directory.

Please note the flyer attached for this single basket raffle which will occur at the much-anticipated Fuller Village Chorus show next week. The Milton Residents Fund will receive all proceeds from the raffle. This fund assists any Milton resident who is experiencing financial need and is a worthy organization to consider donating to during this holiday season. If you wish to contribute additionally, our concierges will help collect and forward funds to Noreen Dolan, manager of the Milton Residents Fund.

Please remind your friends and neighbors about all the Fuller Village activities being offered and encourage them to join in.

Peg Riley, 12-8-21
