The Hapsburgs were one of the most significant European royal families. At the height of their power, the Hapsburg dominions stretched across the globe, from South America, through Europe, to the Philippines. Yet despite this extended realm, and the vast wealth and power that accompanied it, the family suffered tragedy, illness, and eventually, collapse. This lecture will examine the long, tangled story of the Hapsburgs.

PLEASE NOTE

Unfortunately, the Dec. 4th Pinemeadow Tours Grand Holiday Tour has been CANCELLED. The Endicott Estate has changed the required numbers for this trip and will be unable to host this tour this year. ☹ I will be returning checks ASAP. Apologies to all registrants and thank you for your interest. The Fuller Village Activites and Outings Group will be meeting after the holidays to discuss other trips and adventures for next spring- Stay tuned! 😊

"My Favorite Things" Photography Exhibit

In the spirit of the upcoming season of Thanksgiving and Celebration, we will be gathering and displaying resident and staff photographs of all of our favorite things. Please send along via email or drop off special photographs of friends & family, nature, travel, sports, activities & adventures, etc. Please attach a sentence or two describing the photo and why it makes you happy. We will carefully prepare them for display and enjoy them as decorations during this festive time of year. Please reach out to me with any????

Thanks to everyone for their continued patience with the Brush Hill refurbishment project- including new carpet installation which will be happening Sat. Nov. 22- through Wed. Nov. 26th starting each day at 7AM.

Stop by and take a peek at the new installation of artwork from Fuller Village resident Rasma Dos which is currently being displayed in the Blue Hill Art Hallway. Her beautiful landscapes feature several different art styles and mediums and make the space very peaceful!

There's something for everyone out there this Fall! Susie
