1PM Author Talk with Brett Peruzzi

What began as a nostalgic tribute to growing up in Quincy during the 1960s and 1970s became a deeply personal, years-long quest for answers about an absent parent. In his new memoir, Quincy Boy: A City of Presidents Memoir, author Brett Peruzzi traces his coming-of-age in the city that shaped him—while uncovering the story of the father who wasn't there to see it happen. Part family mystery, part portrait of a historic Massachusetts city in an era of rapid social change, Quincy Boy explores how place, memory, and longing intertwine. Peruzzi revisits the neighborhoods, schools, and granite quarries of his youth, as well as the cultural shifts that marked a generation (Blue Hill Activity Room)

Notes from the Program Director

Suminagashi Japanese Ink Class with Gail Davis – Wed. April 29th 2PM

Blue Hill Activity Room

Suminagashi Japanese Ink class is a 1.5-hour hands-on workshop introducing students to Suminagashi, one of the world's oldest marbling techniques. Participants float ink on water and transfer the flowing, one-of-a-kind patterns onto paper, creating stunning works of art with no prior experience required. Instructor Gail Davis is a passionate artist and educator with over 20 years of teaching experience. She brings creativity, warmth, and deep expertise to every workshop she leads. With a career spanning fine art, decorative painting, children's book illustration, and community arts programming, Gail has a gift for making art accessible and joyful for all ages. For the past four years, she has focused her energy on working with adults 65 and older, and looks forward to bringing enriching, hands-on art experiences to Fuller Village. $28 per person. Limited to 10.

Spring has Sprung, so when your thoughts turn to Spring cleaning, get ready to UPCYCLE! On Friday, April 24th, residents are invited to upcycle new or almost new household and other items by participating in this one-day event. Donated items should be tabletop in size, in new or in almost perfect condition. Residents, family members and staff may “shop” at this event. No money will change hands. PLEASE NO CLOTHING, ELECTRONICS, OR JEWELRY. Please drop off donated items Friday April 24th from 9:00am – 10:30am. Shopping is from 11:00am - 2:00pm. Sponsored by the Residents’ Association Activities Committee and the Green Team.

A note about elevator flyers

Elevator flyers are a useful way to promote upcoming resident events. As the weather warms up and campus gets busier, please do not post your FV event flyer on the elevator’s boards until 7-10 days prior to your event. This will allow enough space for current flyers to be viewed at eye level on the elevator bulletin boards. These are useful reminders for residents for events coming up in the next week or so. Please remember to remove them after the event takes place. Thanks!
