Notes from The Program Director

Coming in September:
"From Grief to Growth" This workshop offers a compassionate space for participants to explore grief and loss, understand its impact, and build essential life skills that will support gentle forward movement. Together, workshop facilitators (Author and Healthy Aging Coach) Wendy Juergens and (Certified Life Coach) Karen Potischman will share insight into the many nuances and interpretations of grief. Through guided self-reflection and practical tools, they'll help attendees find the internal strength and confidence to take their First Next Step. This workshop will take place in 4 sessions: Sept 17th, 24th, Oct. 1st and Oct. 8th at 2PM in the Blue Hill Activity Room. This workshop is limited to 10 participants- please commit to attending all four sessions if possible. Sign up with Muriel at (617)361-7778 Tuesday Sept. 8th beginning at 9AM.

Community Fair Update:
The bakery table is looking for bakers for the 2026 Community Fair! Please let Anne Segal (781) 799-9633 or Ellie Forman (781)690-9009 know if you plan to donate! The baking table is one of the reasons why our fair is so successful- please consider contributing your skills to a good cause!

Friday Night Cribbage Groups is seeking new players! Swing by this Friday at 6:30 and let's see if we can coordinate another group of players! Beginners and rusty returners to the game are welcome and we will teach/coach you! Please call Joan Matulis (617) 257-0560 with any questions.
There's something for everyone out there this Summer! 😊 Susie
